HAWAII AGRICULTURAL FOUNDATION

INSPIRING OUR NEXT GENERATION OF FARMERS

HAF programs have reached 37,000+ students in K-12th - promoting interest in ag careers while also introducing science, innovative technology, engineering, and financial literacy to ensure they are prepared for the future of ag.

CONNECTING FARMERS WITH COMMUNITY

Informing the community about the importance of local ag and its benefits to Hawaii's food-resiliency and economy.

HELPING HAWAII FARMERS THRIVE

We're all about keeping farming in Hawaii's strong and sustainable! The HAF Ag Park at Kunia and our Farmer Assistance Programs offer ag land and hands-on support with farming opportunities, ag tech, ag business workshops, and more.

HAWAII AGRICULTURAL FOUNDATION

The Hawaii Agricultural Foundation (HAF), established in 1987, is a non-profit dedicated to preserving agriculture in Hawaii. HAF actively promotes the state's agricultural sector by providing technical, financial, marketing, and business assistance, and providing support for agricultural education, research, and professional development.
