

A collage of vintage photographs and torn paper on a textured, light brown background. The photos include a group of people on a beach, a palm tree against a bright sky, a person in a white uniform standing on a beach, and a portrait of a man in a suit. Several dark, triangular shapes are scattered across the page, resembling torn corners of paper or small pieces of tape. The overall aesthetic is that of a mid-20th-century photo album or scrapbook.
