

A movie poster for 'The Lost Daughter'. The background is a photograph of a woman with dark, curly hair and sunglasses, wearing a light-colored, patterned button-down shirt. She is sitting on a beach, looking off to the side. The ocean and a cloudy sky are in the background. The title 'the LOST DAUGHTER' is overlaid on the left side in white text. Below the title, it says 'A FILM BY MAGGIE GYLLENHAAL'. At the bottom, there is a black bar with white text listing the production crew.

Leda Caruso, a university professor living in Cambridge, MA, decides to spend her summer vacation in Greece. Alone at a seaside town, Leda becomes consumed with a young mother and daughter as she watches them on the beach. Unnerved by their compelling relationship and their raucous and menacing extended family, Leda is overwhelmed by her own memories of the terror, confusion and intensity of early motherhood. An impulsive act shocks Leda into the strange and ominous world of her own mind, where she is forced to face the unconventional choices she made as a young mother and their consequences.

It's a small miracle that our film got made, against all odds and with no Covid-19 shutdowns. I am extremely grateful to my dedicated art department who, despite extreme challenges, managed to bring the outside world onto a small Greek island, just when we needed it most. INBAL WEINBERG
