

TASTE

The music video for Sabrina Carpenter's 'Taste' single was filmed in August 2024 in Beverley Hills, Los Angeles. Directed by Dave Meyers, the video, loosely based on the 1992 'Death Becomes Her' movie follows the revengeful battle between two female characters.

Our aim was to create a vibrant and playful aesthetic, showcasing Sabrinas dynamic personality, charisma and style . The visuals include a timeless pastel color palette, which contrasts with the 'tongue in cheek' and darkly comic scenes- the two women exact increasingly gore-filled revenge on one another, complete with knives, chainsaw and voodoo doll galore.

We wanted to play on references from Death Becomes Her, Adams Family Values and Psycho yet still create our our world which fits with Sabrinas pop aesthetic. Finding the right location that could be adapted for the different scenes was possibly our biggest challenge.

All in all, truly a fun-filled blood and gore experience!
