

A close-up photograph of a woman's face, looking down towards a swirl of ice cream. The woman has dark hair and is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, garment. The background is a solid, muted pink color. The word "Dove" is written in a large, stylized, cursive font that appears to be made of chocolate, positioned over the woman's face.

Comfy, casual, but still cool. You can tell she thought about the look, but not too hard. Or like her closet is so cool that anything she pulls just works.
